The last reports showed more than three hundred dead in the large area visited by the earthquake, with the possibility of this number being increased by several hundred as communication was reestablished with isolated communities.

Thousands were known to be injured and the number of homeless was estimated at 500,000 to 750,000. King Victor Emanuel, who was in Pisa when the shock occurred, joined relief parties and visited several ruined towns today.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSE COMMITTEE DOINGS

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Sept. 9.—While rumors of a grand jury has multiplied the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures today continued delving into details of the money raising plan of the republican party leaders. Democrat members of the committee by disclosures late yesterday predicted when the committee recesses probably tomorrow night they will have proved Governor Cox's charges of huge republican corruption fund.

So far as a grand jury action is concerned nothing definite in the way of facts are obtainable today. United States District Attorney Clynne, is known to be keeping in close touch with E. H. Moore, Governor Cox's star witness here. A transcript of all testimony thus far given has been made available to Clynne. Moore, who had a long conference with Clynne yesterday, refused to talk today about a possible grand jury action. So did Clynne.

Cox's False Charges Increase Donations, Testifies Blair

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Republican leaders planned a drive for campaign funds in practically every city of the country but never fixed any city quota, Harry M. Blair, assistant treasurer of the republican national committee, testified today before the committee of senators investigating the campaign funds.

In modified form this plan is being vigorously pushed, Blair said. Blair named twenty cities where he said campaigns have been or will be conducted. There was a plan, he said, to have Fred A. Upham, national treasurer of the republican party, "pass on" to city chairmen the quotas "suggested" for certain cities by state chairmen, but this plan never was put into effect, he declared.

City quotas have been fixed, he admitted, but in several cases it was done by city workers. He denied any city quota list was drawn up by the national headquarters or fifty-one cities in twenty-seven states were assessed $8,145,000 as charged by Cox.

Blair declared Cox charges concerning a $15,000,000 G. O. P. "corruption fund" had helped republican fund raising and that the senate investigation has speeded it up instead of put a damper on it. He charged republicans were being persecuted because they had attempted "openly" to raise their campaign funds.

Contributions are keeping up. Many men are sending in money because they feel we are being persecuted. Gov. Cox ought to be one of my paid field workers as his charges against the republicans has made the money come in easier.

"It this committee persecuting you?" asked Senator Kenyon.

"No, but the unbiased people of the United States think the republican's national organization plan for open covenant, openly arrived at, is being distorted and misrepresented."

Taking up individual city quotas Reed asked about Boston. Blair said Boston will raise $150,000, Toledo $80,

DR. F. H. PARKER

Dr. F. H. Parker, in charge of the leper colony on Penikese island, Mass., is credited by Doctor Carey of the Massachusetts board of health with having effected the cure of two young men who have been confined to the leper colony for three years. Doctor Parker's treatment of the men consisted of plenty of fresh air and sunshine, good food, etc., and use of chemulga oil, imported from India, and sodium morrhuae and sodium gyrocordanite.

000, Columbus $65,000, but did not know about Cincinnati.

"I think $100,000 is the volunteer quota set by Columbus," Blair said.

"That is what Governor Cox said it was in his speech," Reed added.

Reed quoted from an official bulletin of the financial department a statement that Cincinnati business men had underwritten that city's quota.

He considered that just so much "bull," added Blair.

Treasurer Blair Testifies

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Resuming examination of Harvey H. Blair, assistant treasurer of the republican national committee in the senate investigation of campaign expenditures today, Senator Reed questioned Blair about the plan for getting funds in large cities of the country.

Reed attempted to prove by Blair the truth of Governor Cox's charge that exact quotas were fixed for more than fifty-one cities. Gov. Cox in his Pittsburgh speech read a list of fifty-one city quotas totaling $8,145,000. One of these, $400,000, is Cleveland, Ohio, it was admitted yesterday by Dudley Blossom.

Reed asked concerning a document submitted by Blair marked "confidential information for regional and state chairmen." Blair said the instructions it contained for organizing money raising campaigns were confidential, but not secret.

"When it was issued last November we didn't want the opposition to know all we were doing," said Blair. "But I don't want any one to have the impression that there was anything wrong or sinister in that bulletin. I don't want to be put in the position of playing the game under the table."

Reed called attention to repeated admonitions to the workers against certain information of publicity and asked why they were issued. Blair countered with a copy of an official bulletin urging workers to give local publicity to money raising campaigns. "Those instructions were issued after you knew the investigation had been ordered and the fact brought out," said Reed.

Blair declared he did not know about the senate investigation when he urged publicity be given the plan. Reed asked whether Blair intended to put on a last minute drive for funds in the closing days of the campaign.

"We had planned a last drive for one dollar subscriptions," he said, "but it was not adopted."

COX DELIVERS THREE SPEECHES IN MONTANA

SAYS WE ARE LOOKED ON AS A NATION OF QUITTERS BE-CAUSE WE HAVEN'T
JOINED LEAGUE

HERBERT WALKER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Helena, Mont., Sept. 9.—"The United States is looked upon by its associates in the world as a nation of quitters because the senatorial oligarchy has blocked its entrance into the league of nations," Governor Cox asserted in his speech here today, opening his second day's campaign in Montana.

"America can not enter into that period of prosperity to which we are entitled until doubt and distrust and the growing hatred against us created by apostles of hate and the senatorial oligarchy have been removed.

"We are looked upon as a selfish nation, a nation of quitters, self-prosperous and self-satisfied, while our associates as well as our enemies among the nations of Europe are starving to death."

"They cannot go back to work. They can not even pay their debt of ten billion dollars to us until definite decision as to the terms of peace and indemnity have been made and all distrust has been removed.

"This can only come when we join the thirty-eight other nations of the world which have already affixed their signatures to the article of peace agreed upon when the boys stood watch on the Rhine."

"Reconstruction can not be definitely undertaken until we know where we stand with the nations of the world."

Cox declared that war taxes cannot be reduced if we continue building battleships and equipping armies.

Three main speeches at Helena and the mining section of Anaconda and Butte were on Cox's schedule today after which he will leave for his stump invasion of Washington.

JOBS FOR EVERYBODY THIS WINTER RE- PORTS LABOR BUREAU

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 9.—There will be jobs for everybody this winter, John D. Densmore, director of the labor employment service, predicted today.

Based his statement on reports of 329 field agents Densmore said the coming winter will be one of the best in years as regarding opportunities for employment, with the exception of the war years when there was an absolute shortage of labor.

Densmore's statements were made in face of reports to the federal reserve board that unemployment was "particularly severe" in Cleveland were twelve thousand workers were reported out of jobs, and that in the Maine canning district thirteen thousand were unemployed.

Reports to the American Federation of Labor, according to Secretary Frank Morrison, show unemployment in the textile trade and in some sections of other trades.

Thirty years ago, when he laid down the sword he had carried with him through the Peruvian struggle with Chile, he took up arms against every imaginable weakness, shortcoming, sin, and vice of his fellow countrymen; and in laughter-provoking sarcasm and scathing irony he has depicted all the wickedness to which flesh—and particularly Peruvian flesh—is heir.

American Doctors Say
This Turk, at 145, is the Oldest Man in the World

American Red Cross physicians at Constantinople, after looking up every available record, are convinced that Zora, born at Bitlis, Armenia, early in 1775, is the oldest man in the world. That makes him 145 years of age. He went to Constantinople when a youth, married at eighteen, lost his wife, married again and was the father of fifteen children. His only surviving son is ninety-six years old. For a century the sturdy Turk made a comfortable living as a hamal, or street bearer. He is now employed as a capoudji (janitor) at the artillery arsenal of Toj-Hano. This portrait was taken two years ago when he was still strong and healthy and living like any other Turk, not being particular about his diet. His health has failed somewhat since and he complains bitterly against the doctor who have had much trouble forcing him to live on milk and milk foods.

IS QUICKLY SOOTHED
WITH THIS SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.

F. B. Randab, secretary of the Crow Wing County Salvation Army Advisory Board, has received this letter from Col. William S. Barker, divisional officer of the northern province:

"On behalf of the Salvation Army and the vast throng of people whom the Salvation Army serves, I desire to express my sincere gratitude to yourself and other members of the advisory board of Crow Wing county for the whole hearted manner in which you have adopted our new plan. Realizing how busy you are and how many important matters press upon you and occupy your time, we know that the work you have undertaken means a real sacrifice on your part.

"We do feel, however, that the object is well worth the sacrifice and that with the assistance and advice of such strong persons as compose our board in Crow Wing county, the Salvation Army will be able to render real service to a much greater degree than it has ever done before.

"We have given the confidential study, prepared by your board on conditions in Crow Wing county very careful consideration. We congratulate you upon the amount of information embodied in the study, and thank you for the trouble that you and your associates have gone to in this matter.

"We note from your report that the county is doing a very thorough work for its indigent poor.

"In the section devoted to pauperism, poverty and the unemployed, we are pleased to see that this question is not a vital one at the present time in your county, there being no dependents according to the report. This is certainly a commendable condition. We note that in this connection should cases arise in which the board considers that we can render some service, they will be reported to us.

"We note with extreme pleasure the splendid work that the child welfare association is doing in your county.

"We desire to compliment you upon the splendid way in which your dependent maternity cases are handled.

"You have an extremely large number of foreigners in your county among your children of school age, but it seems to me that your county is making splendid efforts toward lining these children up and making good citizens out of them. To supplement this especially among the elders, would advise that you get in touch with the American Legion, if you have a Post, and hook them up with your school teachers to augment their work along this line."

Birds' "Love Dance."

On some of the islands of the Pacific, in tropical South America, is found the beautiful bird known as the jacana. It is famous for its so-called love dances, which appear to be executed by the males to excite the admiration of the female birds. When the mating season approaches the jacana will single out its favorite lady and try to win her admiration with all its bewitching maneuvers. In the dance the wings are spread and worked in such a manner that the beautiful colored feathers produce a brilliant effect.

Azores' Population.

The population of the Azores is about 245,000, the number of its inhabitants having changed but little in the last century, and, if anything, having diminished.

BE A HELPFUL BYSTANDER By CAPTAIN G. R. G. FISHER

Stroke, Heat Exhaustion and Freezing

Stroke and heat exhaustion are both caused, generally speaking, from the same source, i. e., excessive hot weather, although the former is usually produced by the direct rays of the sun striking the head, while the latter is more apt to come from humid weather or as a result of being confined to poorly ventilated work shops or rooms.

The remarkable thing about these very serious emergencies is this, that while both arise from a common cause, yet in each case the symptoms are so diversely opposite, as are also the treatment, that it will be well to impress these points by means of a comparative table and thereby facilitate one's decision as to which, and also enable one to do just the correct thing, for we must be sure in these quite common emergencies since they are of an exceedingly serious nature. 1,964 deaths occurred last year from this caused directly, and of the 62,431 deaths reported from apoplexy, (there is a form of this disease which is termed "heat apoplexy") there were doubtless many of those whose death was the result of this condition, due to humid or hot weather.

Stroke:

Weakness—tired feeling.
Throbbing headache.
Sense of oppression.
Flushed face.
Skin very hot and dry.
Great fever (104 degrees or higher).

Breathing shallow or loud like snoring.

Pulse quick and bounding.

Unconsciousness.

Heat Exhaustion:

Weakness—tired feeling.

Dull headache.

Great depression.

Pale face.

Skin clammy and cold.

Temperature of body low.

Breathing feeble.

Pulse weak.

Seldom unconscious.

Treatment

Stroke:

1. Get quickly into shade.
2. Remove tight clothing * and strip to waist.

3. Dash cold water on face and chest, or put into ice water bath, keep ice on head.

4. Keep patient in recumbent position—head raised.

5. When conscious, give lots of cold water to drink, or ice to suck.

Heat Exhaustion:

1. Get into any quiet place.

2. Loosen tight clothing and cover with blankets to keep warm.

3. Do not apply cold applications under any circumstances.

4. Patient lying flat, head low.

5. Aromatic spirits of ammonia water in sips. Hot tea or coffee.

Both of these distressing conditions may be prevented by taking care not to over do during hot weather, and in case of one becoming tired, especially dizzy, followed by headache or sense of oppression, these being the warnings of approachable trouble.

Then at once stop working, take a cool bath, or bathe the head, face and hands in cold water, lie down in shady or airy place, and rest quietly for an hour or two. Don't permit use of alcohol in any form.

Frost bite need hardly be described since it is a common affliction in Northern Division territory. If anything need be emphasized in this connection, it is prevention. Proper care should be taken to avoid unnecessary exposure of face, ears and hands, taking particular care of the feet.

If one is frost bitten, endeavor to restore affected parts by rubbing with snow, or, in absence of snow, ice scrapings or ice water. The hands or feet can be submerged in cold water and friction applied while in water, and as the color of parts is restored, raise temperature of water gradually until normal condition obtains. Dry parts and rub on vaseline, or lard and turpentine, or carbolic salve and wrap in absorbent cotton. If blisters have formed, prick with a sterile needle. Care will have to be taken for some time following to prevent recurrence of frost bite.

Caution—Never take a person into a warm room who is suffering from frost bite. First restore parts. Heat will cause gangrene.

American Train Dispatching System Adopted in France

HENRY WOOD.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Paris, August 30.—(By Mail)—French railways have just decided to adopt the American telephone train dispatching system.

This constitutes the first and most important contribution to date to French industry resulting from the American intervention in the war and the American army's invasion of France.

There's just one fly in the ointment—at least in the mind of the average Parisian. The latter is fully convinced that if it takes the French train dispatcher as long to get a telephone connection as it does to get one in Paris, no train will ever get outside of the city limits.

Nevertheless, the recognition of the superiority of the American method is genuine and complimentary to America.

The dispatching of trains by telephone, after being perfected in the United States, was later adopted in Canada, Italy and on several English lines as well as in some of the English colonies. France still clung to the old time system of train dispatching by telegraph which is slower and less sure.

No small sensation was caused in railway circles in France, when for the first time American army railway engineers and trainmen were seen to dismount from their train hook up their little portable telephone apparatus at the nearest telephone post and telephone their dispatcher for instructions. What caused still more sensation was to see the American trainmen get them, and that at once.

Owing to the terrific deterioration of French railways and rolling stock during the war and the difficulties of repairing them in France's present handicapped situation, it is only within the past few months that the French have been able to experiment with some of the newer and more practical methods introduced by the Americans.

The first experiment with telephone train dispatching was made on the line between Paris and Chartres. It proved such a success that the other French companies immediately gave the system a tryout, the Eastern Company installing it at Nancy and the Paris-Lyon-Mediterranean utilizing it between Lyon and Dijon.

In each case the success has been so great as to insure the eventual permanent use throughout France.

This, however, will be slow as it involves not only a very heavy expense for installation but also the retraining of the entire railway personnel in France.

To Monsieur Pie goes the distinction of being the first train dispatcher in France—although he and the rest of his fellow dispatchers will be known as "regulateurs." He is at present in charge of the first system between Paris and Chartres and to him falls the task of starting in to educate the future "regulateurs" for all the French railways.

Poker as Glass Cutter.

An ingenious method of cutting glass with a poker is described. Make a tiny notch on the edge of the glass where you want to cut it. Lay the glass over a newspaper, so that you have a printed line as a guide, heat a poker and apply it where the notch is. There is a faint click, and if the hot poker is drawn slowly across, a crack follows. When the opposite edge of the glass is reached it will be found that it is in two separate parts.

Paper Collar Protects Plants.

A collar of paper has been made for protecting the stems of delicate plants after they have been placed in the ground. These are often attacked by the cut worm, which cuts them off short and kills the plant, but the worm cannot get through the paper collar.

SAFE FOR WOMEN

Two women doctors have recently arrived in California, after driving across the United States in their motor car. Two other young women are walking across the continent, having started late in the summer, and expecting to spend Christmas day beside the Pacific. A year ago a woman of nearly seventy drove her own car from the state of Washington to Florida.

None of these women have had any unpleasant experiences. Not one of them has met with an insulting look or word. They have found their fellow-men courteous, interested and helpful if there was any need of help.

Such experiences are the best possible proof that the world is safe for women if the women make it safe for themselves. There are, of course, exceptions to this statement, individual cases where women have come to harm through no fault of their own, and society must ever be on the alert to prevent this sort of thing. But take it by and large, the world, at least so far as this country is concerned, is a safe and wholesome place. The women in it may go ahead freely to take advantage of the wider scope which life affords them, without fear of molestation or interruption as long as their own conduct is calculated to inspire respect.

AN "I" FOR AN "A"

"The bride wore a gown of white organdie trimmed with real lace," says the Montevideo News.

"If the groom was a doughboy he must have felt right at home," adds the Wheaton Gazette-Reporter.

The misprint is commented on by the Baudette Region.

The Brainerd Dispatch made a similar mistake one time before the war and luckily for the harmony of the community the press was stopped in time and the real lies, an heirloom from her great-grandmother, was changed to lace.

These are the innocent mistakes which cause the newspaper editor to jump down the elevator shaft.

Tia Juana, Oasis
For U. S. Drinkers,
Gamblers, May Die

(United Press)

Tia Juana, Lower California, Sept. 4.—Passage of this famous gambling and racing center, long the mecca of American sportsmen and tourists, loomed today as the outcome of peace negotiations between the Mexican federal government and Governor Estaban Cantu, Lower California chief executive through several Mexican revolutions.

Along with Mexicali, across the border from Calexico, Tia Juana, only seventeen miles from San Diego, has grown in importance as the center of racing, drinking and gambling, until it has become internationally famous.

Now the prosperous American concessionaires are facing the problem of disposing of property worth millions of dollars in the way of liquor stocks, gambling halls, and other sidelines of the sporting world.

Under the rulership of Governor Cantu, both the state government and concessionaires have enjoyed tremendous profits, particularly after January 16, 1920. Now Governor Cantu is faced with political extinction, while owners of large liquor stocks fear their property will be confiscated by the Mexican federal government.

Americans here point out that the virtually independent rule of the province by Governor Cantu, under which drinking and vice resorts flourished, has been a thorn in the side of the de la Huerta government for months. The de facto government, following the flight of President Carranza, placed rigid restrictions on resorts along the Texas and Arizona border. Cantu, however, refused to follow central government orders to close Tia Juana and Mexicali.

Thousands of tourists have annually visited here, some of them avowedly on "slumming parties," others to escape the great American drouth. During the "hundred days" of racing here last winter, sportsmen from all parts of the country, including all classes of followers of the turf sport, made this their headquarters.

Mexicali has enjoyed similar "wide open" conditions. The "Owl" famous gambling resort of that city, is known to gamblers as one of the most unrestricted houses in the world.

Now, however, that the rule of the federal government, appears to be about to extend over this territory, old timers are sadly shaking their heads and murmuring, "It is bound to come."

"Passing of another oasis," seems a fitting characterization of the latest change in Lower California.

WHAT SHAPE HAS MOTH HOLE?

On This by No Means Simple Question Hangs Result of an Omaha Lawsuit.

On whether a moth makes an oblong hole or a round hole when he sinks his molars into the more succulent portions of dad's last winter overcoat or sister's summer furs, hinges a law suit in Justice Collins' court, brought by an Omaha store against Miss Josephine Hill of Council Bluffs. The store seeks to enforce payment for an $89 suit which Miss Hill is alleged to have purchased, says the World-Herald.

According to the girl's testimony, a week after she bought the suit she found a moth hole in it. She returned it to the store. The suit was mended and given back to her with instructions to wear it 30 days and bring it back at the end of that time if not satisfactory.

Miss Hill testified she wore the suit for 30 days, placing it carefully on a hanger in her closet each night. At the end of the specified period, examination, she said, revealed not one but a whole community of holes. She refused to pay for the suit, and the store took the case into court.

After one clerk for the store told the court the holes complained of couldn't be moth holes, because any self-respecting moth eats a round hole, while those under discussion were distinctly oblong, and after Miss Hill had made an exhibition of the holes and another clerk had suggested that Miss Hill might have worn the holes in the skirt by rubbing against her typewriter desk, Justice Collins looked wise and took the matter under advisement.

TERM THAT BANISHED ANGER

Appellation Bestowed on "Bachelor Maids" Put Further Animosity Out of the Question.

The two Elton sisters, age thirty and thirty-two and very successful business women, live next door to the Smith sisters, about fifty and fifty-two, who are also retired and given to the occupations of crocheting and quilt making. The Elton sisters speak of themselves as "old maids," and the Smith sisters as "pesky old maids," in order to distinguish between them. Also they are given to much pitying of the second-class ladies.

But the other evening one of the Elton sisters, clad in a bungalow apron, was out sprinkling the lawn. As she moved around the house she heard the Smiths in conversation. "Yes, sister, age has its compensations," one was saying. "Now look at those girls next door. They no sooner get home than they get into those aprons, so scanty that they are immodest. Of course, they're just kids, but still—"

That was enough for Miss Elton. With a rush she was in the house.

"Oh, Grace," she told her sister, breathlessly, "those Smiths are real nice. We've got to stop calling them pesky old maids."

And now generously the Eltons speak of them as "the other old maids."

New Glass Industry.

Important developments are eventually probable on the northern borders of Dartmoor, in Devonshire, England. In consequence of the discovery of a very large deposit of granullite, a substance of much value in the manufacture of glass. According to experts, "granullite contains not only silica, but potash, soda and alumina, which are necessary in glass making, and its use is not only economical, but gives the best results in the production of glassware of the highest quality." It is stated that an experimental furnace has been in use for some time, two others are being constructed, and it is anticipated that the commercial manufacture of glass will commence almost immediately.—Scientific American.

Settlement of Oklahoma.

After the acquisition by the federal government of the Indian claims, the territory of Oklahoma was thrown open to white settlers, the central part by proclamation of President Harrison on April 22, 1889, a large tract in 1891 and the Cherokee strip or outlet in the north in 1893. The territory was settled with extraordinary rapidity. Oklahoma was admitted to the Union November 16, 1907.

VAUDEVILLE MAKES A HIT AT NEW PARK

Bill at the New Park Theatre is the Best Ever Offered at That Amusement Place

RECORD HOUSES ON SEPT. 8-9

A Novelty is Zimmermann Appearing in Momentous Moments at the Peace Table

The vaudeville bill at the New Park Theatre for Wednesday and Thursday is the best offered and is drawing record houses. On vaudeville nights the admission is 50c and tax for lower floor and 30c and tax for balcony, and the shows are at 7 and 9 o'clock.

The most novel number on the bill is Willie Zimmerman who appears in momentous moments at the peace table. His first characterization is that of the aged Clemenceau and the resemblance is startling. He imitates the aged premier in step, manner, etc.

"Forty-nine long years I have waited for this event," said Clemenceau as he attached his name to the peace treaty.

Next Zimmerman appeared as Muller, of the German delegation. Signing that treaty evidently went against the grain of the German.

In direct contrast to the preceding character was that of Lloyd George.

"The Man of the Hour," was Wilson and Zimmerman's version resembled the president. The next character study was a veteran of the civil war and the last was General Pershing as he addressed the Yanks at Soissons.

Larrivee and Dagneau, billed as the southern song birds, sang well.

Saxton, Chanard and Leonard appeared in songs, dances, and instrumental music. Instrumentation included French horns, cornets, trombone, drums.

Blanch Hazelton as the 20th century Maggie Cline sang and told some Irish stories.

The pictures were the photoplay version of Stevenson's "The Pavilion of the Links."

Gave Him Idea for Balloon.

The invention of the ordinary balloon is said to have had an exceedingly simple origin, though some authorities give more than one instance of this discovery. A linen shirt was hanging in front of a fire, and Stephen Montgolfier, who is said to have invented the balloon, noticed that as the warm air rose it took the shirt with it. Quite a simple incident, which led to a remarkable invention.—Seattle Times.

Meteors.

Observations made simultaneously from stations far apart have proved that the average meteor when first seen is about eighty miles above the surface of the earth, and disappears from view at thirty miles. In other words, it travels fifty miles before the atmospheric friction burns it up. This friction, it is reckoned, raises it to a temperature of something like 3,000,000 degrees, so that, unless of large size, it has no chance to reach our planet.

Now Carrying on Correspondence With Mayor F. E. Little Concerning the Gas Plant

URGES CITY TO BUY THE PLANT

Whitney Says He Would Like to Dismantle the Plant if Not Sold as He Can Get Good Price

Since the council gave A. G. Whitney the ultimatum to make gas or forfeit his franchise, and the 30 days ultimatum expires Sept. 23, Mr.
Whitney has ceased writing council as consumers' committee, etc., and is now directing his letters to the mayor, Hon. Frank E. Little. The mayor turns them over to the council.

As Mr. Whitney frames his demands there is always a lot of depreciation to take care of and the rates are always above the minimum of $2 and rate of $3 agreed upon by council and gas consumers. Tacked on the Whitney offers is also the detail of citizens buying $25,000 worth of stock. Now no council in the world can legislate on rates which carry such a proviso. You could hardly expect the council to run around town and peddle the stock.

This is the latest letter from Mr.
Whitney in which he also states he has a chance to sell the gas mains in the Brainerd street:

September 8th, 1930
Honorable Frank Little, Mayor, Brainerd, Minnesota.
Dear Sir:

Are we to understand that all negotiations are at an end so far as the City of Brainerd is concerned affecting the Brainerd Gas and Electric Company, and, if so, we would like to commence the dismantling of our plant at once as we have an opportunity to sell at very good figures quite a large part of the different apparatus, including all of the gas mains, etc.

Please advise us definitely by return mail.

It would pay your city to buy this plant and combine it with the rest of your properties and if the city has any intention of buying, why cannot we get at this phase of the proposition immediately.

As we have advised you, we would never consider the starting up of the plant for so much as a single hour without every arrangement as to all details, rates, etc., being made absolutely permanent.

MISSISSIPPI

SCENIC ROAD

General Manager Truman Pierson Visits Brainerd in His Official Scout Car No. 1

IS COVERING ENTIRE ROUTE

International Road Runs from Port Arthur, Texas, Louisiana to Winnipeg, Canada

Seven thousand miles over the Mississippi River Scenic Highway, that is the trip General Manager Truman Pierson of St. Louis is making over the great international road from Port Arthur, Texas and Louisiana to Winnipeg in an automobile to demonstrate the possibilities of automobiling along the Mississippi river from mouth to source. Mr. Pierson is driving in what is officially termed as Scout Car No. 1 and he arrived in Brainerd Wednesday night leaving early this morning for Winnipeg, direct after conferring with Chamber of Commerce officials and business men.

When asked what the status of Brainerd is in regard to the highway Mr. Pierson said that it is proposed to run this line through Brainerd as originally planned provided the people want it but that nothing had been done since his visit to the city for organization purposes last February. He declared this morning that the time for the annual convention in St. Louis was rapidly drawing near. In this convention, about which Mr. Pierson came here to talk with R. R. Wise, some very important matters, some of them of vital interest to Crow Wing county would come up. If Brainerd organizes on the basis as other towns have organized Brainerd will have at least 300 votes in this convention.

Great progress has been made in the Scenic Highway this summer.
State after-state has been organized along definite and substantial lines.
This winter an extensive campaign for tourist business will be carried on in the Southern states and according to arrangements already made Be-nildji, Case Lake, Little Falls and St.
Cloud will come in for much desirable publicity in the South.

Mr. Pierson has been travelling the road by car since March having gone even more than the 7,000 miles required of him. He has conducted 276 good roads meetings and perfected unit organizations all along the line. He likes Brainerd, likes to visit here and declares that Brainerd possesses so much of interest for the tourist that it ought to be talked about and advertised more extensively and the Scenic Highway organization proposes to do this to the benefit of its ability. With its many advantages of approach to the tourist trade he feels as if with a powerful organization this can be done very effectively. On account of the absence of Mr. Wise from the city it is not known what date arrangements can be made to have Mr. Pierson return to Brainerd.

Valuable Stimulant.

Herba mate is a drink somewhat similar to tea or coffee, which is made from the toasted and ground leaves of a bush which grows in Paraguay.
Mate, or Paraguay tea, as it is also called, is believed to be not only a stimulant but an aid to digestion, and it is said to be agreeable and refreshing.
It overcomes fatigue to such an extent that laborers and travelers who drink it can keep going for whole days without food. It may be prepared with milk and may be taken with or without sugar.

LIT MATCH TO LOOK AT TANK

Tourist Sets Fire to Car and Himself at Sherlund Co. Filling Station in Evening

FIRE EXTINGUISHER IS USED

Excited Tourist Tossed Hose Away and Gasoline Ignited on Sidewalk and Coal Chute

A tourist stopped at the Sherlund Co. filling station for gasoline and held the hose for his tank while Eli Stendahl ground out the "gas".

"Let's see how much I got", said the tourist, and suiting the action to the word he lit a match to hold near his tank gauge.

Stendahl saw the move for a match and yelled, "Stop!"

The match ignited the vapor and the tank of the large touring car blazed up like a plumber's blow torch.

The tourist caught on fire too and threw the hose down, making a con-sweep and further saturating air, sidewalk and coal chute of the garage with gasoline.

Louis Sherlund in the doorway of the garage yelled for a fire extinguisher.

Stendahl grabbed a small Pyrene and put out the fire in the touring car.

Then Stendahl caught up with the blazing tourist who was running around crazy and fanning his own flames. He doused him with the extinguisher. From him Stendahl raced to the coal chute and killed a fire headed for the basement. The rest of the extinguisher Stendahl squirted on the sidewalk.

Five cars drawn up in line back of the blazing touring car buckled up into a mixup. A fiver backed into a large car and broke the latter's fenders and bumper and the owner wanted to fight the Ford man. Several smashed headlights in their anxiety to get away.

The tourist cut burned shoes and clothing from feet and body, jumped into his overalls and started down the street. His tank was still filled with Pyrene fumes and it took some time to start the car.

And when it was all over, somebody in the garage said:

"Did that tourist pay for his gas?"

And he had not paid.

BRAINERD'S

ODDEST STORIES

This is a fish story vouched for by Dr. A. K. Cohen. We don't doubt his word a bit.

Neither will you when you hear the story. Doc was out at Clark lake and using another sportsman's reel made a wild cast and threw overboard reel, line, pole and tackle. In order to mark the spot, doc put a nick in the boat. He was awfully sorry and next day let his friend have his own reel and rod. His friend took out the boat and dived repeatedly to locate the tackle. Nothing doing.

A kid fishing in the rear of the boat landed a pickerel. With the pickerel came up doc's friend's reel and pole and on the end of the line was a big bull head.

About the Penalty—at the Park

Our object in running a motion picture theatre is to give you the best we can get so that you will be afforded a pleasant evening's entertainment.
But this time we are offering you more than that in "The Penalty" by Gouverneur Morris which is the sixth in the series of Eminent Authors pictures. If you thrilled over "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," if you sat up all night reading "Oliver Twist" or shuddered over but re-read "Dr.
Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," then "The Penalty" is just the kind of a picture for you. It tells the amazing story of one of the most original characters in fiction. No more bizarre, forceful yet convincing character is to be found in any book than Mr. Morris' skillfully drawn "Blizard," master mind of the underworld, who might have been a genius and a power for good had it not been for the mistake of an unskilled surgeon who made him a cripple for life.

If you see "The Penalty" you will never forget it! If you don't you'll have something to regret for a long time.

Removing Ink Stains.

To remove ink stains from either brass or copper a very simple remedy is required, but it is well worth knowing, as otherwise ink spilt on brass or copper instantaneously and left to dry is a trouble to remove. Simply pour a few drops of fresh ink on the old stains and rub with a piece of rag, when the old stain will disappear quite easily.
Polish in the usual way.

Ill-Flated Orchid Hunters.

Not very long ago a New York man, traversing a Venezuelan forest on an exploring expedition, came upon a hut wherein were found three human skeletons and thousands of dead orchid plants. From between the ribs of one of the skeletons grew an orchid of rare beauty. The three unfortunates had evidently been murdered.

AID FOR SERVICE MEN EVERYWHERE

AMERICAN RED CROSS EXTENDS ITS RELIEF PROGRAM TO VARIOUS COUNTRIES.

SOLDIERS THERE NEED IT

Permanent Offices Established in Haiti, Dominican Republic, Philippines,
Hawaii, Canal Zone and China—
Problem of the Siberian Wives.

By JAMES P. HORNADAY.
Washington.—The American Red Cross announces that it is fast extending its military relief program to the insular possessions of the United States and to foreign territory where the government maintains armed forces, either as a disciplinary measure or for the protection of American interests. United States soldiers and marines are at present stationed in the island of Haiti, the Dominican republic, Philippines, Hawaii and also the Canal Zone and China.

Although the service our soldiers perform in these outlying districts is not as exciting and thrilling as actual warfare, they are oftentimes engaged in, combat, quelling uprisings, suppressing marauding bandits, etc. This active service, which naturally attracts the American youth, sometimes means extreme hardships with little glory. In Haiti alone there are some fifty outposts, ranging in strength from 50 to 100 men each, where marines are constantly on patrol duty. Perhaps 50 per cent of the marines in Haiti and Santo Domingo are serving somewhere back in the hills. Oftentimes these men are out of communication with the outside world, except for the occasional visit of the supply truck.
Aside from this, these countries, as a rule, offer little by way of entertainment and recreation.

Army and Navy Asked It.
At the request of both the army and navy, the American Red Cross is continuing its operations with the peacetime armed forces. Since the signing of the armistice it had been confining its military relief program to troops stationed within the continental limits of the United States. After due consideration of the needs of the men stationed in other parts of the world, and in conformity with the request, as noted, of the military authorities, the insular and foreign division determined last January to make the peace-time program extend to every enlisted man in the service, regardless of station. The men stationed in the outlying districts, especially, needed the attention of the Red Cross, just as the men did who went overseas during the world war. As a result of this decision, Red Cross field directors have been sent to each of the above named countries and permanent Red Cross offices have been established.

For the patients in the hospitals and the men on outpost duty the Red Cross provides cigarettes, stationery, comfort kits, knitted articles and recreational supplies, all of which serve as an aid to contentment and morale.
Helps With Their Problems.

Fifty per cent of the men have problems regarding their allotments or insurance, and the Red Cross man assists in untangling these many difficulties. But it is the personal contact—the visits and chats with the Red Cross man—that means the most of all to these soldiers. With this fact in view, Red Cross field directors are continually on the go—from garrison to outposts, to hospitals, or wherever troops may be stationed—endeavoring to reach, personally, every man in the command. Generally the field director must travel with an escort of three or four men, and his mode of transportation is by horse or mule-back.

All of the field directors are continually writing for more reading matter. One report states that "newspapers are read throughout, and magazines are handled until they become soiled and 'dog-eared.' The men back in the hills and remote outposts especially are always asking for more books and music."

In the Philippines the greatest problem confronting the Red Cross has been that of assisting the military authorities in handling the situation of the Siberian wives who have come to the Philippines with their soldier husbands. It is reported that many of the soldiers, in being transferred, lost their service records; consequently their pay was held up several months.
Meantime they were sent to Manila, where living is very expensive, housing facilities inadequate and conditions on the whole, for so many foreign wives, almost impossible. However, the situation is being met very effectively. A Red Cross house has been opened in which many of these Siberian wives are domiciled.

Supplies which were sent to Siberia for our troops that were formerly stationed there and which remained when the troops were withdrawn have been transferred for distribution among the troops now situated in the Philippines and China. In fact $25-000 worth of supplies have been allocated for this purpose, which has aided in a large measure in making Red Cross service in these two countries very effective.

Though small in area the British island of Mauritius produced about 300,000 tons of sugar last year.

JOURNAL PRINTED BY INDIANS

Cherokees Once Had a Newspaper That May Be Said to Have Become a Power.

The Cherokee Indians, when still occupying what now is the state of Georgia, published a newspaper in their native tongue in 1828. One of their tribe, Sequoyah by name, in 1823 designed 86 characters that were to represent the Cherokee language in print. The national committee and council of the tribe meeting at New Echota, the capital of their nation, in 1826, voted a fund to buy type, a press and the necessary equipment. The paper was known as the Cherokee Phoenix. Half of it was printed in Cherokee and half in English. Hundreds of full-blood Indians who otherwise would have remained illiterate all their lives, were thus enabled to read after mastering the alphabet. These Indians became subscribers of the paper, as did members of neighboring states, and the paper became a power.

The Phoenix was "known in Europe," and among other famous papers that asked to be placed on the exchange list was the London Times.
The paper was in operation for about five years, and was harassed when the movement having for its object the removal of the Cherokee Indians westward was at its height. It suspended publication when the Georgia state legislature forbade a white man to live among the Cherokees.

The honor of becoming the first Indian editor fell to Elias Boudinot, a native-born citizen of the nation.

DRAW ON AFRICAN FORESTS

Plan on Foot to Increase World's Supply of Wood From That Source Going Forward.

A reinforcement for the world demand for lumber is preparing in British East Africa, where there are between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 acres of woodland to draw upon, and a new industry, very infantile at present, is expected to grow so rapidly that the government is now considering plans to improve the harbor facilities for exporting the forests. The best wood is suitable for wheel makers and wagon builders and the making of wood block paving, railway sleepers, bridges, ox yokes, and ax, pick and tool handles.

It also makes good flooring and lining boards. The builder, however, must needs be of a patient disposition if he postpones building until these British East African woods are available.
Meantime there are new sounds in some of the African forests, the rhythm of the woodsman's ax, the buzz of the sawmill, and the puffing of under-sized locomotives on the narrow gauge tracks that are penetrating from the main line of railway into the woodlands. And many a workman, no doubt, will some day work with tools whose handles grew in an African forest.

There's always room at the top for Highest Possible Quality at Lowest Possible Price.

THERE was plenty of room at the top for a cigarette of tip-top quality at a rock-bottom price. That's where Spur comes in. And that's where Spur stays. For men who judge a cigarette by its looks, by its blend, by its taste—well, Spur was made for them. Spur's new blend of choicest Oriental and American tobaccos brings out to the full that good tobacco taste. Spur's satiny imported paper, crimped (not pasted) makes an easier-drawing, slower-burning cigarette. Spur's smart brown and silver packet, threefold, preserves the Spur flavor and fragrance.

Money can't buy anything better!
